

2023-24

MAGICAL PUPPET TREE PERFORMANCES

THE SEED KEEPER

HAWTHORNE VALLEY FALL FESTIVAL
Saturday, October 7, Times TBA

A little child living in a beautiful paradise, wonders if life is like his in other places...When he learns of a distant land where nothing will grow, he decides to bring the seeds of his garden on a long journey across the sea. Performed by the Hawthorne Valley Early Childhood Teachers in silk marionette theater, this offering is a part of our school's 50th founding anniversary.

HALLOWEEN JACK O LANTERN WALK

Tuesday October 31, 4:30 PM - 6:30 PM

We welcome families to join us in costume for a magical fairy tale walk in the forest where puppet characters from beloved stories come to life. A bonfire with music, soup, and popcorn awaits adventurers at the journey's end.

THE TOMTEN AND THE FOX YULETIDE FAIR

Saturday December 2, 11 AM, 12 PM, 1 PM, 2 PM

"Hens?" ... "Nothing was further from my mind" ... says Mr. Fox. The children's classic from Swedish author Astrid Lindgren comes alive in this delightful performance brought by community teachers, and artists.

Please join us at our Holiday Yuletide Fair!

RAINBOW CROW

SPRING MAY FAIR

Saturday May 4, 1 PM and 2 PM

Once upon a time, when was it? When was it not? Before the two-legged ones came to this land, Crow had rainbow feathers and a sweet song... Join us for this tale from the First Nation people to learn how his feathers have changed. Performed by our Acorn Player Student troupe in felted rod puppets and colored light and shadow.

BUILDING SUSTAINABLE COMMUNITIES FOR THE FUTURE
HAWTHORNE VALLEY
waldorf school